HEAD COACH KELLY GRAVES

Kelly Graves has turned Gonzaga University women's basketball into one of the elite programs in the nation in his 12 years at the helm. The winningest coach in Bulldog history led GU to their unprecedented eighth-straight West Coast Conference Championship and fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last six years in 2011-12.

Graves guided the Zags to a 14-2 mark in league action in 2011-12 after back-to-back perfect 14-0 seasons. Despite having their 40-game WCC unbeaten streak broken – which included both regular season and tournament play and spanned parts of four seasons – the Bulldogs found themselves as a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament after earning the school's first at-large bid. Gonzaga reached the Sweet Sixteen for the third-straight season after upsetting both No. 6 Rutgers and No. 3 Miami. GU's season came to an end against No. 2 seed Kentucky.

The Bulldogs closed out the year at 28-6 – their sixth-straight 20-win season; and earned a final ranking of No. 19 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Top 25 poll. Gonzaga also jumped from No. 25 in the nation to No. 14 in the nation in attendance, averaging 5,443 fans per home game.

With Graves as head coach, the Zags are now 8-5 in NCAA Tournament play.

The 49-year old now owns a 326-151 career record that also includes a three year stint at Saint Mary's College. At Gonzaga, Graves is 260-125 overall and 124-44 in West Coast Conference.

Dating back to his years as an assistant coach at the University of Portland, Graves has now coached 32 All-West Coast Conference performers, seven WCC Players of the Year, six All-Americans, two WCC Defender's of the Year, four WCC Newcomer's of the Year and 25 WCC All-Tournament selections. He also has coached two players who were selected in the WNBA Draft, including the 2011 No. 3 overall pick Courtney Vandersloot.

The 2010-11 season is probably the pinnacle of his career thus far and won't be forgotten anytime soon. The Bulldogs became the Cinderella story of the NCAA Tournament. The No. 11 seed bulldozed their way to their inaugural Elite Eight appearance by defeating a Big 10 Conference member, a Pacific-10 Conference member and Big East Conference member. The Zags defeated No. 6 seed University of Iowa; No. 3 seed UCLA and No. 10 seed University of Louisville before falling to No. 1 seed Stanford University.

Gonzaga closed the season with a school record 31 wins. After starting the season 2-3, the Bulldogs went 29-2, including a 21-game winning streak that ended in the Elite Eight. The Zags were rewarded for their spectacular season, ending the year ranked a school-high eighth.

The recent success isn't a surprise for many as the Zag had slowly been making a name for themselves nationally. Gonzaga won its first-ever NCAA Tournament game in 2008-09 and found its way in its inaugural Sweet Sixteen game in 2009-10. The Bulldogs first appearance in the NCAA Tournament was in 2006-07.

No stranger to the area, Graves started his coaching career in nearby Moses Lake as the head coach of Big Bend Community College. In three seasons at the school, Graves turned a struggling program with four wins his first season into a Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges power his last season with 23 wins.

From Big Bend, Graves earned his first taste of West Coast Conference basketball as an assistant at the University of Portland under head coach Jim Sollars. During his tenure at Portland, Graves recruited many of the players that helped the Pilots post a 102-46 record and 51-19 WCC mark in five seasons. The Pilots made four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1994-97 and boasted three straight WCC Players of the Year from 1995-97.

In 1998 Graves moved south in the WCC to guide the program at Saint Mary's College. He made an immediate impact with the Gaels, producing a 66-26 record in three seasons with WCC Tournament championship game appearances his first two seasons. In his first season at the helm he guided SMC to a 20-9 record, the first 20-win season at the school since the 1990-91 season.

Graves followed up that success with a 26-7 mark and two firsts for the Gaels program. The first-ever WCC Tournament championship and first-ever NCAA Tournament berth, a 61-57 setback to Notre Dame. His final Saint Mary's squad finished with a 20-10 mark that included a first-round WNIT victory over Hawai'i and a second-round loss to Long Beach State.

Graves is an active member of the WBCA (Women's Basketball Coaches Association) and currently sits on the Board of Directors.

This past summer, Graves added USA Basketball to his resume, becoming an assistant coach with the U18 women's basketball squad and helping the team to a gold medal at the 2012 FIBA Americas.

SWEET SIXTEEN

The 2011-12 Gonzaga University women's basketball team once again took Spokane and the nation on a historic ride. The Zags made history earning their first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, their fourth-straight overall and fifth in six years. The Bulldogs won their unprecedented eighth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title with a 14-2 mark but fell in the championship game of the league tournament.

Gonzaga, the No. 11 seed for the second-consecutive year, again hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament. With two sold out and boisterous crowds behind them, the Bulldogs upset No. 6 seed Rutgers 86-73 in the First Round behind 20-plus point games by both senior Kayla Standish (23 points) and sophomore Haiden Palmer (21 points) and knocked off No. 3 Miami 65-54 in the Second Round behind a 19-point performance by Standish and a 16 point outing by fellow classmate Katelan Redmon to reach the Regional Semifinals for the third consecutive year.

After their victory over the Hurricanes, Gonzaga headed east to Kingston, R.I. for its Sweet Sixteen match up with the University of Kentucky. Their memorable ride came to an end with a 79-62 setback to No. 2 seed Kentucky.

ELITE EIGHT

The 2010-11 Gonzaga University women's basketball team took Spokane and the nation on a pretty spectacular ride. The Bulldogs, who won their seventh-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title with another perfect 14-0 mark and won their third WCC Tournament title in four years, made fans around the nation with their improbable run in the 2011 NCAA Tournament, that ended in the Elite Eight.

Gonzaga, who was seeded No. 11 in the NCAA Tournament, hosted the first and second rounds of the tournament in the McCarthey Athletic Center. With two sold out crowds behind them the Zags defeated the No. 6 seed University of Iowa 92-86 in the First Round on a 34 point performance by senior Courtney Vandersloot and a 30-point outing by junior Kayla Standish and then defeated No. 3 UCLA 89-75 in the Second Round to gain a spot in the Sweet Sixteen for the second-consecutive year. Another highlight of GU's win over the Bruins. Seeing Vandersloot become the first player in NCAA Division I history to score 2,000 points and dish out 1,000 assists in their career.

After defeating UCLA, Gonzaga had a short trip to the Spokane Arena for its Sweet Sixteen game versus No. 7 seed Louisville. With 11,000 fans backing them against the Cardinals, the Bulldogs good fortunes continued with a 76-69 victory.

The Bulldogs great run finally came to an end when No. 1 seed Stanford University used its size advantage to win the Elite Eight match-up 80-63.

SWEET SIXTEEN

The Bulldogs 2009-10 season was a historic one. Gonzaga won its unprecedented sixth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title, earned its second-straight, and third in four years, trip to the NCAA Tournament after winning the WCC Tournament handily, and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament - the then-first such appearance in school history. Overall the Zags finished 29-5 overall, had a perfect 14-0 mark in conference play and No. 12 in the final Top 25 poll.

Gonzaga was seeded No. 7 in the NCAA Tournament; its highest seed in school history. It faced No. 10 University of North Carolina, a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), in the First Round in Seattle, Wash. Senior Tiffanie Shives was a huge reason the Bulldogs pulled off the victory over the Tar Heels. Scoreless for 31 minutes, Shives scored 14 of her 16 points in a crucial 5-minute stretch of the second half, including hitting four-straight 3-pointers, the help GU hold off UNC for a wild 82-76 win. The Bulldogs' reward for winning the track meet and earning their second tournament win in school history was a rematch with No. 2 seed Texas A&M in the Second Round. The Aggies had defeated the Zags 80-76 earlier in the season in Las Vegas.

Twenty minutes in December made Gonzaga fearless in March; no one more than senior Vivian Frieson. And because of Frieson, the Bulldogs made a trip to the Regional Semifinals. Gonzaga's do-everything forward scored 23 points, including the go-ahead 12-footer with 17 seconds left, to lead the Zags to a 72-71 upset win over second-seeded Texas A&M in the Second Round. The win was Gonzaga's 20th-straight, its last loss coming to the same Aggies three months prior in Las Vegas.

The Bulldogs historic season came to an end in the Sweet Sixteen as Xavier University won a rematch of the 2009 NCAA Tournament, 74-56. Sophomore Katelan Redmon scored 14 points and junior Courtney Vandersloot dished out 11 assists in the Zags loss.

SECOND ROUND

The Bulldogs had an unprecedented year in 2008-0. Gonzaga won its fifth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title, earned its second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament after winning the WCC Tournament for the second time in three years and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Overall the Zags finished with a 27-7 mark, one win shy of tying the school record, and had a 12-2 record in conference action.

Gonzaga, seeded No. 12 in the NCAA Tournament, upset No. 5 Xavier University 74-59. Showing the savvy of an experienced tournament team - not one making just its second appearance ever - Gonzaga imposed its pace on Xavier's defense that was sixth best in the country at the time, allowing 53 points per game. Juniors Heather Bowman and Vivian Frieson, along with sophomore Courtney Vandersloot led the way for GU in their stunning First Round victory. Bowman scored a team-high 23 points, while Frieson added 17 points, three blocks and three assists. Vandersloot, the West Coast Conference Player of the Year, finished with 15 points and dished out 11 assists.

The Bulldogs battled with No. 4 Pittsburgh to the last minute but unfortunately fell to the Panthers 65-60. Vandersloot led the Bulldogs with 18 points, seven assists and seven rebounds. Bowman, the Bulldogs' leading scorer, battled her way to 15 points.

FIRST ROUND

The 2007 season is not one that will be forgotten any time soon. The Zags finally got the monkey off their backs and won their inaugural West Coast Conference Tournament Championship, earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament; their first-ever appearance. Gonzaga also won its third-straight WCC regular season title with an impressive 13-1 record. Stephanie Haw was named WCC Co-Player of the Year; Heather Bowman WCC Newcomer of the Year and Kelly Graves garnered WCC Co-Coach of the Year.

The Bulldogs, who were seeded 12th in the NCAA Tournament, dropped a touch decision to Middle Tennessee State University in the first round of the NCAA Tournament hosted by Stanford University. Gonzaga was led in the game by then-senior and now current director of basketball operations Michelle (Elliott) Clark. Clark scored 17 points, hitting 4-of-5 shots and sinking 7-of-9 from the charity stripe. Kate Ridenour added 10 points.

WNIT APPEARANCES

1987-88 WCC CHAMPIONS

In only its second year of NCAA Division I competition Gonzaga won its first West Coast Conference title posting an 11-3 record in league play. The team finished the season 18-9 overall including a seven-game win streak to open WCC play. The team was led by All-WCC performers Tammy Tibbles and Carla Curfman, both players graduating among the school's all-time leading scorers.

1993-94 WNIT Team

The Bulldogs posted a school-record 21 wins en route to the school's inaugural NCAA Division I post-season appearance. Gonzaga would go 1-2 in the WNIT Tournament in Amarillo, Texas - finishing in seventh place in the old tournament format. The team was led by first-team All-WCC selections Ivy Safranski and Juanita Rivera, both players graduating among the school's all-time leading scorers.

2003-04 WNIT Team

Gonzaga returned to the post-season for the first time in 10 years as the Bulldogs posted an 18-12 record to finish second in the WCC. Gonzaga advanced to the WCC Tournament championship game, losing by three points to regular-season champion Loyola Marymount. The Bulldogs lost in the first round of the WNIT, dropping a 69-64 decision at Oregon State. The team was led by first-team All-WCC selections Ashley Burke and Shannon Mathews, both juniors at the time.

2004-05 WCC CHAMPIONS/2005 WNIT Team

Much like the Bulldogs men's team in 1999, the Gonzaga women captured the hearts of Spokane as they made a magical run through the West Coast Conference that was capped by a second-straight post-season berth. Gonzaga ran off a 23-game win streak that was the longest in the nation ending in the WCC Tournament Championship game at Santa Clara. Along the way GU became only the second team to finish with a perfect WCC record and earned the school's first national ranking in both the Associated Press and WBCA Coaches poll. The season ended in the second round of the Women's NIT at eventual champion Southwest Missouri State. The season was also highlighted by Shannon Mathews earning WCC Player of the Year honors along with honorable mention All-America honors.

2005-06 WCC CHAMPIONS

Coming off the 2005 season that saw the Bulldogs win the WCC regular-season title after finishing 14-0, Gonzaga had its second-straight stellar year, winning its second WCC regular-season title after finishing 11-3. Both Stephanie Hawk and Ashley Anderson earned first team all-WCC honors, while Jami Bjorklund was named to the WCC all-newcomers team.

2007-08 WCC CHAMPIONS/2008 WNIT SECOND ROUND

The 2008 season didn't end like many envisioned, but it was none-the-less another successful year. The Gonzaga Bulldogs rolled through West Coast Conference action, finishing with a 13-1 overall mark to win its four-straight title. The Zags, seeded first in the WCC Tournament, fell in the finals to host San Diego. Gonzaga didn't earn a bid into the NCAA Tournament but had a spot in the WNIT. GU's season came to an end in the second round of the WNIT with a setback to the University of Colorado. Gonzaga closed out the year with a 25-9 overall record.

USA WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM

Gonzaga University women's basketball player and current WNBA Chicago Sky player Courtney Vandersloot was added to the 2011-12 USA Basketball Women's National Team. Vandersloot increased the USA National Team roster to 26, from which the 12-member 2012 U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team will be named. Player selections were made by the five-member USA Basketball Women's Basketball Women's National Team Player Selection Committee.

Vandersloot participated in the USA Women's National Team Training Camp May 10-12, 2011 in Las Vegas, Nev.

USA WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES TEAM TRIALS

Former Gonzaga University women's basketball player Courtney Vandersloot was one of 29 players to participate in the USA Women's World University Games Team Trials in the summer of 2009. Vandersloot became the first women's player in Zag history to earn an invite to a USA Team Trial.

Kayla Standish was then invited to the 2011 USA Women's World University Games Team Trials.

Heather Bowman also received an invitation in 2009 but had to decline due to an injury she suffered weeks before the Zags season was completed.

USA PAN AMERICAN GAMES

Former Gonzaga University women's basketball players Katelan Redmon and Kayla Standish were both named to the 2011 USA Basketball Women's Pan American Games Team. The 12-member team featured 11 college athletes and one high school senior and competed Oct. 21-25 in Guadalajara, Mexico, at the 2011 Pan American Games.

The United State placed seventh at the Pan American Games after going 2-2 overall. For the tournament, Redmon averaged 20.8 minutes, 6.5 points, 7.0 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.0 steal while shooting 39.2 percent (11-of-28) from the field. For the tournament, Standish averaged 12.5 minutes, 2.0 points, 2.8 rebounds, and 1.0 block per contest and hit 33.3 percent (4-of-12) from the field.

Redmon and Standish became the first players in Gonzaga's women's basketball history to play internationally for the United States. Standish attended the trials for the 2011 USA World University Games team in 2011 and former Zag Courtney Vandersloot attended the same trials in 2009 but neither made the team.

USA BASKETBALL U18 TEAM

Gonzaga University women's basketball head coach Kelly Graves was an assistant coach for the 2012 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team.

The University of Miami head coach Kate Maier was the head coach with Graves and Nikki Caldwell of Louisiana State University acting as assistant coaches. The coaches were selected by the USA Basketball Junior National Team Committee.

Trials to select the 12-member USA squad were held May 18-21, 2012 at the U.S. Olympic Training Center (USOTC) in Colorado Springs, Colo. The team then regrouped at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at the Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando, Fla., for its first training camp from May 28-June 2, 2012. The USA team then returned to the USOTC for its final training camp Aug. 3-14, prior to traveling to Puerto Rico for the FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

The U18 Women's Basketball Team won the 2012 FIBA Americas U18 Championship gold medal going 5-0 in the tournament, including a 71-47 victory over Brazil in the championship game. The gold medal marked the sixth-straight for the United States at the U18's. Since its inception in 1988, the American women have now claimed seven gold medals (1988, 2000, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2010, 2012) and two silver medals (1992, 1996) in nine tries, and are now 43-2 all-time at this event.

CANADIAN NATIONAL TEAM

Former Gonzaga University women's basketball player Janelle Bekkering was named to the 2009 Canadian Senior Women's National Team (SWNT); making her the first Bulldog to make the Canadian National squad. Bekkering, of Taber, Alberta, was one of 16 players vying for a spot on the squad.

Canada's Senior Women traveled to China June 6-14, 2009 to compete in a three-game exhibition series, followed by a visit to Cuba in August for three further exhibition games, with a final two-game tune-up in September against Brazil. The season culminated with the eight team FIBA Americas Championships for Women in Brazil where it placed third. As a top three finisher at this year's qualifying tournament, Canada clinched a spot in the 2010 FIBA World Championship in Czech Republic.

In the summer of 2010, Bekkering was once again named to the SWNT. She traveled with the team to the Czech Republic for the 2010 FIBA World Championships. She played in six of the seven games for Canada, scoring a team-high eight points in their setback to Team USA in the second round.

PLAYING PROFESSIONALLY

Courtney Vandersloot became the first Bulldog player in school history to be drafted in the first round of the WNBA, as she was the third overall pick, taken by the Chicago Sky during the 2011 Draft at the ESPN Studios in Bristol, Conn. The Sky is a member of the Eastern Division.

Vandersloot, the first player in NCAA Division I history to score 2,000 points and dish out 1,000 assists in their career, was the second overall Zag to be drafted in the WNBA.

She was named to the WNBA All-Rookie Team at the end of the 2011 season. Vandersloot was joined on the team by Maya Moore of the Minnesota Lynx; Danielle Robinson of the San Antonio Silver Stars; Danielle Adams, also of the Silver Stars and Liz Cambage of the Tulsa Shock. Vandersloot received 10 votes. Moore, who was named Rookie of the Year, and Robinson, each received 11 votes, while Cambage and Adams each got nine.

In 2011, Vandersloot led Chicago and ranked second among rookies in assists (3.7 apg). She played in all 34 games and started 26, averaging 6.5 points. In June of 2011, Vandersloot recorded highs in points (18) and assists (10) both against the Connecticut Sun in separate games. Vandersloot was selected as a reserve for the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game.

PLAYING PROFESSIONALLY

VIVIAN FRIESON was selected as the 31st pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Tulsa Shock, becoming the first Zag in women's basketball history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Bowman became the second Zag in school history to be invited to a WNBA training camp as fellow classmate Vivian Frieson was drafted by the Tulsa Shock in the third round of the 2010 draft.

Bowman ended her career as one of the most prolific players in Gonzaga and West Coast Conference history. The GU and WCC career scoring leader with 2,165 points was also a four-time All-WCC honoree, four-time WCC All-Tournament member, the 2007 WCC Newcomer of the Year and the 2008 WCC Player of the Year. She averaged 16.8 points, 6.8 rebounds, 1.2 steals and 1.0 assist per contest over her four-year career.

Bowman was released from her Seattle Storm contract and played basketball for Riva Basketball Club, located in the southernmost region of Switzerland during the 2010-11 season. She went on to play for Frankston Blues in Australia. She now is an assistant women's basketball coach at Whitworth University.

PLAYING PROFESSIONALLY

KAYLA STANDISH was selected as the 19th pick in the 2012 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx Monday, becoming the third player in Zag women's basketball history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Standish, the two-time All-West Coast Conference honoree, helped Gonzaga to its third-straight NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2011-12. She averaged a team-best 16.4 points, 7.5 rebounds and 1.5 blocks per game, while shooting an impressive 48.0 percent (214-of-446) from the field and 78.9 percent (127-of-161) at the charity stripe.

Standish closed out her Gonzaga career as the school's leader in games played (138) and blocks (176). She also stands fifth in the career record book for rebounds (809); seventh in both points (1,583) and field goal percentage (48.8) and eight in free throws made (289).

Standish was released from the Minnesota Lynx during training camp in May of 2012. She currently plays professionally in Australia with the Townsville Fire and former teammate Kelly Bowen.

KATELAN REDMON became the second Gonzaga women's basketball player to be drafted in the 2012 WNBA Draft, picked in the third round, 36th overall by the New York Liberty.

Redmon, a two-time All-West Coast Conference honoree and 2010 WCC Newcomer of the Year, averaged 13.4 points, 5.4 rebounds and 1.6 assists per game as a senior with the Zags. She became the 18th player in school history to eclipse 1,000-points plateau, ending her career with 1,412 - which is ninth highest in school history - and is the Bulldogs career leader in field goal percentage at 51.7 percent. She also grabbed 548 rebounds, had 170 assists and made 103 steals in 102 games played.

Redmon was released by the Liberty during training camp but was re-signed shortly there after. She played in seven games during the 2012 season, averaging 1.0 point and 1.1 rebounds per game. Her first WNBA game was against the Chicago Sky and former Zag teammate Courtney Vandersloot.
